

ALIVE

A look in the mirror
Just tell me what you see
Pretty face, lovely skin
Clear eyes, dark hair you feel fine
It's not eternal

You don't want the glory
And you don't want to be a star
All you want is to live your life
Just as it's meant to be

The eyes of the crowd
Always on you
Fascination or hate
Their destination is you
You're fed up, you're right
What do they think you are?

You don't want the glory
And you don't want to be a star
All you want is to live your life
Just as it's meant to be
