

GIMME YOUR GUN

What you see and what I am
Is not the same you know
If you think I don't look bad
I am strong from nine to nine
But after who knows?
I don't need witnesses to cry

As long as the shining sun
Rises and comes down
I am always on the run
You think I only have fun
In my heaven's garden
Could you please give me your gun?

Everyday I go to work
With my happy face
Smiling at everyone
Looking at this fucking clock
Cursing these hours
That are taking me from pain

As long as the shining sun
Rises and comes down
I am always on the run
You think I only have fun
In my heaven's garden
Could you please give me your gun?

When the night is coming down
I begin to shiver
The dark is here all around

I'm all right, I feel good
I won't fall, I won't cry

In my dark world I'm alive
In my head I survive
I'm no longer conscious now
I am disconnected

As long as the shining sun
Rises and comes down
I am always on the run
You think I only have fun
In my heaven's garden
Could you please give me your gun?
