

TWELVE

Hand in hand with this girl
Easy to blend into the mass
Your steps not as firm as you'd like to
But enough for them
Who's that girl in your bed?
A lover, an alibi or just a friend?
Your whole family likes her
Such a well-matched couple

There's so much pressure over you
You need a new beginning, a new beginning
It would be so nice to be you
You need a new beginning, a new beginning

When you walk close to her
You find yourself looking at men
Such a strange behaviour for a young man
Little by little you understand
The next step you know who you are
A coming out and start the fight
Pack your bag and start a new life

There's no more pressure over you
It's a new beginning, a new beginning
It is so nice to be you
It's a new beginning, a new beginning
